SIMMS

To Meet Lavigne

Before Massillon A. C.
Next Tuesday.

Expected to be a Very Lively Affair.

Ruhlin Will Meet Jeffries in Near Future.

General and Local Sporting News—Football.

Eastern fistic experts are very much interested in the outcome of the fifteen round contest between Art Simms of Akron and Dave Lavigne, of Boston, which will be decided at the West Side A. C. of Massillon next Tuesday evening.
Lavigne's skill and ability are well known throughout the east, where he has met all the crack men of his class and succeeded in covering himself with glory in each battle. He developed in the same school as Spike Sullivan, Dave Sullivan, Timmy Kearns, Eddy Connelly, Mysterious Billy Smith, Patsy Kerrigan, at one time the most noted welterweight in the world, Joe Walcott, George Dixon and any number of other first class men. He was a member of the famous Roanoke club of Boston, and as such he has appeared in public in limited round contests against the best men of his class.
Among others whom he has faced are Patsy Sweeney (who knocked out Kid Broad), Young Sylvester, Maurice Rosenberg, who once won a decision over Kearns, Spike Haley, Allie Alberts, who twice fought draws with Dave Sullivan; and at the Pelican club, Brooklyn, N. Y., he knocked out Lew Meyers in two rounds and then added the scalp of Billy Smith of Philadelphia, to his belt in two rounds. As a tip on the ability of the lads it might be mentioned that Smith is considered good enough to meet Perry McGovern at Chicago in a six-round contest in the near future, while Meyers has fought such well known glove performers as Casper Leon, Jack Ward, and other bantam championship aspirants.
"Lavigne," says an expert critic, "has everything essential to success. He is clever, heady, fast on his feet punches well with either hand, and is one of the best 'finishers' developed in the east in the past ten years. Once he starts an opponent going along Queer street, it's dollars to doughnuts that Dave comes home with first money. He proved that in his battles with Meyers and Smith, both admittedly good men, and he has shown strong symptoms of becoming a pugilist of the first rank—if his manager does not fly too high with him. His match with Simms will test him to the fullest, if the stories sent east about Simms are not extravagant, and it is believed that they are not. In fact his being taken in hand by George Tuohy proved that he must have more than average talent and splendid possibilities."

However the Akron friends of Art Simms are not worrying about the outcome of the contest. They will be on hand good and strong to encourage their favorite.
Ruhlin to Meet Jeffries.
That Gus Ruhlin, Akron's big heavyweight, will try conclusions with Champion James J. Jeffries seems an assured thing. After Corbett, Ruhlin comes next in the opinion of the champion.
The following press dispatch bears upon this subject:
Frank Hough in the Philadelphia Inquirer, says:
"No fault can be found with the programme Jeffries has mapped out for himself. It is one of the privileges of the champion to nominate the order in which he will take on his challengers. He has elected to meet Corbett first, then Ruhlin and then the winner of the proposed mill between Fitz and Sharkey, or both of them in the event of their failure to come together. All this talk about this one and that one being 'better entitled' to a meeting with the champion is all tommy rot.
His decisive victory over Fitzsimmons and his subsequent defeat of Sharkey settled that. If an outsider had any preference probably Peter Maher would have as much claim to that distinction as any other member of the heavy-weight brigade, but there are no rights of priority which the champion is bound to recognize. His proposed meeting with Corbett in August will be regarded with some distrust. It savors too much of a family affair. Besides, assuming that Corbett was in good shape the night he met Sharkey at the Lenox club, there would be nothing to a fight between him and Jeffries. After withstanding the whalloping that Sharkey handed out in the recent 25 round affair, there is no reason for believing that Jeffries will be visibly annoyed by any of Corbett's punches. As to Corbett winning out by his cleverness, that's all poppycock. It did not save him at Carson City with Fitz, and would not have saved him at the Lenox with Sharkey.

The Sailorman got to him, and whatever Sharkey can do in that line Jeffries certainly can. All this may be premature, however. It remains to be seen whether a bona fide match is to be made. It may only be a sort of boost for Jim's interior decoration plant. If the match is made, though, it will hardly be as big a financial winner as were the last two big bouts, for there are any number of followers of the ring who will never be satisfied that Corbett meant to be on the level the night he met Sharkey. They will not take chances on another Barney."

Gus Ruhlin may have an opportunity to meet Jake Stelzner. A dispatch says:
John McKee, manager of Jake Stelzner, has an offer from a club in Youngstown, O., to have Stelzner go against Ruhlin, Choynski or Dunkhorst. He will accept.

NEW OFFICERS

Changes Made in the Prudential Insurance Company's Office.

Within the past month five new men have been put to work in this district by the Prudential Insurance company.

D. T. Meade of Princeton, Ind., has succeeded C. F. Downs as assistant superintendent, under Superintendent J. A. Strang of the Canton district, of which Akron and Summit county is a part. Mr. Downs is now with the Western and Southern Insurance company of Cleveland. Karl Duplank of New York has succeeded W. D. McDonald, assistant to the local assistant superintendent. Mr. McDonald is now representing the company as agent. Three new agents have been placed in the field. They are: C. E. Getzenauer of Cleveland; W. E. Frank of Brooklyn, and George P. Bailey of Canton.

The company's business is in a prosperous condition, having increased more than 20 per cent. in the last two months over any other two months within the history of the Prudential's being located here.

Not a Surprise.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from the attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by all druggists. E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.

PARTY POLITICS

Would Be Done Away With Should This Bill Pass.

One of the provisions of the law giving a uniform government of all the municipalities of Ohio, does away with politics in municipal elections. No names of candidates are to be placed upon any municipal ticket for any office except such as have been nominated by petition. The names of all such nominees will be printed in a single column upon the ballot under the title or name of the office, without any other designation whatever, and the names of the candidates for each office will be printed alphabetically upon the ballot in such rotation that the name of each candidate for each office will be printed first on an equal number of ballots. The ballot shall be so printed as to give to each elector a clear opportunity to designate his choice of particular candidates.

This system would play havoc with the voter who cannot read. It would be impossible for any worker to tell the voter to vote for any name down on a certain ticket, because each ticket would be arranged in a different order.

"You are your own worst enemy," she said. "Why do you keep reminding me of the fact that I deliberately asked you to marry me?" He returned.—Chicago Post.

WILL Fight the Trust. Contract For Sinking the Well

For Akron's New Salt
Plant Being Closed.

The Schumacher Property to be Utilized.

New Company Will Give the Trust a Hard Run.

James Christy jr. is in Cleveland today and it is reported H. E. Loomis is also there, and that final steps are under way to conclude the deal for the purchase of the Schumacher property in the vicinity of the Northern Ohio Traction company's power house.

The new salt company, composed of James Christy, Jr., H. E. Loomis, P. E. Tanner and others, has had an option on this property—two acres—for some time past. The option concludes by December 1, and as other persons are after the property, it is said the company in question took steps to consummate the purchase Thursday forenoon.

Arrangements are also under way to make contracts for sinking the well, and within a short time work of drilling will, in all probability, be commenced.

The desirability of locating near the power house lies in the fact that all the exhaust steam at that plant may be used in operating the machinery of the salt works.
Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures any case of bronchitis, lung affection and grippe. Physicians prescribe this reliable remedy and druggists recommend it, because it never fails to cure and costs but 25 cents a bottle.

WILL BE PASSED Despite the Protests of Temperance People.

That Seems to be the Opinion of the Falls Saloon Ordinance.

The council chamber at Cuyahoga Falls was packed last night with temperance people, who anticipated that the city dads would take definite action on an ordinance to repeal an ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquors in that village.
The matter was not discussed, but was put upon its second reading. The temperance people don't want the ordinance passed and will probably present their side at next week's council meeting. The consensus of opinion is, however, that the ordinance will be passed.
